

Currituck County High School

Honor Code

(11-15-06)

Currituck County High School takes pride in promoting and upholding academic honesty, integrity, and respect. Therefore cheating is wrong and will not be tolerated. Providing the means to cheat and therefore promoting it is also unacceptable. Cheating includes but is not limited to:

- Taking credit, consciously or unconsciously, for work that is not your own or attempting to do so (i.e. Plagiarism).
- Allowing another student to use/forgo your work as his/her own.
- Talking to another student during any assessment (i.e. test, quiz) situation.
- Relaying or accepting information regarding an assessment.
- Making illegal corrections to an assessment/assignment prior to turning it in.
- Using unauthorized supplemental materials (i.e. tools, notes) in an assessment situation.
- Taking and/or using an assessment out of the classroom without permission.
- Failing to report students you have witnessed cheating.
- Attempting to evade late penalties.

*Assessment situation – Any situation in which a teacher does not condone/allow outside help of any form. Examples: exams, tests, quizzes, projects, homework, etc.

As CCHS Knights, we commit to work toward establishing a community in which truth and integrity triumph above all.
